

COMBATING DISINFORMATION

Contrary to what has been published elsewhere, it is false to believe that His Majesty the King chose to wear his Canadian decorations recently as a sign of support with Canada in the face of American pressure. The information currently being shared by other Canadian monarchist organizations is false because His Majesty has always been wearing his Canadian decorations long before his ascension to the throne. See below:

- 1 Order of Canada, 2017
- 2 Order of Military Merit, 2022
- 3 Canadian Forces' Decoration, 1977

In reality, symbolic actions taken by the Royal Family in support of Canada include (other than the significant efforts discussed in the previous release) the planting of a (Canadian) red maple tree by His Majesty the King on Commonwealth Day, March 10, 2025 and;

The wearing of a Canada red dress by HRH The Princess of Wales on the occasion of Commonwealth Day, also on March 10, 2025.

For more information, visit the Crown Society of Canada!